REGULATORY COMMISSION

CAUSE NO. 40572-INA139

You are hereby notified that on this date the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission has caused the following entry to be made:

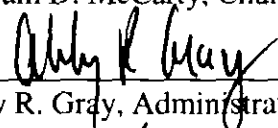

On February 21, 2002, Ameritech Indiana submitted a First Amendment to the existing interconnection agreement of Ameritech Indiana and Ameritech Advanced Data Services of Indiana, Inc. ("AADS"). On March 19, 2002, the Director of Telecommunications Division of the Commission submitted a memo to the Chief Administrative Law Judge recommending that this amendment submission be converted to a formal docket. On March 22, 2002 the Chief ALJ issued a docket entry finding that this Cause should be converted to a formal docketed proceeding and assigned to the presiding officers. On March 27, 2002, the presiding officers issued a docket entry with attached questions. On April 9, 2002, Ameritech Indiana filed its responses to the questions.

On June 21, 2002, the presiding administrative law judge issued a docket entry finding that the 90 day period is inapplicable and this Cause is ongoing, subject to further Commission action.

The presiding officers now find that said amendment should be allowed to go into effect pursuant to the Commission's procedures for Interconnection Agreements and Amendments.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

William D. McCarty, Chairman

Abby R. Gray, Administrative Law Judge
